

Longford's[®] authentic Gelato

When you think of award-winning craftsmanship, you might not think of gelato. At Longford's we don't just "make" authentic European-styled gelatos, they are carefully crafted by hand in small batches for the most intense flavor.

We've been working with Italian artisans to carefully choose natural ingredients that make a difference. Made fresh daily from fine vanillas, chocolates, caramels and hand-picked nuts, Longford's Authentic Gelato will win over the most discerning critic.

You'll find Longford's Authentic Gelato is smooth, velvety and gentle to the palate, made with low butterfat cream and very little air. The result is an extremely flavorful product you'll come back for again and again.

Simply stated... deep, rich flavor you'll look forward to!
